defendant is a 46-year-old man who is presently unemployed. He has been out of work for 2 years because of a disability. He has an adult felony record spanning 27 years, including drug crimes and crimes of violence. The most serious convictions occurred in 2003, when defendant was convicted of delivering between 50 and 449 grams of cocaine, in addition to a felony-firearm violation. He was discharged from parole in December 2010 and again faces charges of drug distribution and possession of loaded firearms in connection with drug activities.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
